

Social media guidelines for employees

Noah Fischer · 12 November 2025 · WE-MC-GDL-0002

We are proud when colleagues share their work. These guidelines help you do that safely.

Please do

- Share and comment on Weyland posts
- Show your work – with correct PPE and without confidential details
- Say that opinions are your own
- Ask Marketing if you are unsure

Please don't

- Post photos from site without the site manager's OK
- Share contract, price or schedule information (e.g. delivery dates of turbines or cables)
- Comment on incidents, planning applications or ongoing negotiations
- Reply to journalists – forward them to press@weyland-energy.example
